

Village of Bible Hill Volunteer Award Nomination Form

Recreation Nova Scotia, Province of Nova Scotia and Village of Bible Hill recognize that community spirit is built and maintained by volunteers, and we would like to recognize and appreciate the many contributions made by them.

If you are interested in nominating an organization or individual for recognition at our Volunteer Awards Ceremony, please complete the following form and submit it to Village of Bible Hill by Monday, February 26, 2024 in person at 67 Pictou Road, or via e-mail to haley.smith@biblehill.ca. The volunteer commitment(s) can be in any field (i.e., hospital service, schools, recreation, service club, etc.) Village of Bible Hill would like to thank all groups, clubs and community organizations that participate in this worthwhile annual project. Please fill out the nominee's name, phone number and email address along with a summary of the nominee's volunteer work (if more space is needed, please attached separate sheet).

Each nominator may nominate more than one organization or individual for each category and may nominate in one or more categories. The nominator may be contacted to provide addition information about the nominee(s). More information will be sent out after the nomination process is complete.

Golden Long-term Service Award

The Golden Long Term Service Award is presented to those residents of Bible Hill who have made contributions through worldwide community volunteer service for a period of fifty (50) years or longer of which at least twenty-five (25) years of the volunteer service took place in the Village of Bible Hill.

Long-term Service Award

The Long-term Service Award is presented to those residents of Bible Hill who have made contributions through worldwide community volunteer service for a period of twenty-five (25) years or longer of which at least twelve (12) years of the volunteer service took place in the Village of Bible Hill.

Young Achievers Service Award

The Young Achievers Service Award is presented to a Bible Hill Youth (aged eighteen (18) or younger) who has made an outstanding contribution in volunteer community service in Bible Hill in the past year. There is no limit to the number of awards presented each year, or the number of times a person may receive the award.

Outstanding Community Service Award

The Outstanding Community Service Award is presented to those who have made an outstanding contribution in volunteer community service in Bible Hill in the past year. The volunteer may reside inside, or outside of the Village of Bible Hill. There is no limit to the number of awards presented each year, or the number of times a person may receive the award.

Generations of Volunteering Award

Presented to a Bible Hill family with two or more generations that have a combined fifteen (15) or more years of service, with each member contributing at least five (5) years. They may volunteer in one organization or for many, together or separately. It is the family culture and commitment to the community that this award focuses on. Only one (1) family will be chosen per year at the Village's discretion, and each family may receive the award only once.
